THE PACIFIC STATION HOLDUP.

KANSAS CITY, May 25.—The Missouri Pacific train which was held up near Pacific, a short distance west of St. Louis, last night, arrived here this morning at 10 o'clock, on time.

From various trainmen it was learned that the story of the robbery as told in the Associated Press dispatches last night was materially correct.

The amount of cash secured by the robbers was $1,250.

The bandits also secured $2,500 in Missouri Pacific pay checks, which they are now cashing at the bank.

There has been no word from the robbers since they were captured.

There was a large quantity of silver left by the robbers, it being too bulky to carry off.

All the facts concerning the robbery were gathered by Conductor King at the time of the robbery.

He says that one man got out of the train, and that the robbers had demanded admission to the car.

The robber threatened to throw the tramp from the car, but after a short altercation the tramp promised not to give the alarm.

He said that he wanted to be left in peace to complete his stolen ride.

The robber agreed to this, and after a few minutes the tramp was seen to get up and walk away.

The train having come to a standstill, the robber was joined by three other men, who compelled the engineer and fireman to accompany them to the express car.

When the train stopped Express Messenger Hamilton suspected something was wrong and secured the doors of the car and began fortifying himself by piling up baggage and express matter against the doors.

In the meantime the robbers had demanded admission to the car.

The express messenger refused to open the door, and the robbers fired first through the side of the car, and again, with many threats and oaths, demanded that the door be opened.

The messenger again refused, and then the robbers resorted to dynamite.

A stick of the deadly explosive was placed under the door of the car and set off.

The explosion was terrific.

It blew the door off its hinges, and shattered the entire side of the car.

Seeing that further resistance was useless, the messenger, badly frightened, though unharmed, allowed the robbers to proceed with the matter in hand unmolested.

Two of the latter held the fireman and engineer, another stood guard outside the car, while the other two went through the express car.

Mean while the passengers had become alarmed at the firing of the robbers, and the explosion of the dynamite, and grasping the situation, they began to make themselves and their valuables scarce.

Watches, money and jewelry were hurriedly secreted, and many passengers hid themselves in various hiding places.

One small man crowded under a berth which had been made up, and could not be induced to come out until the train had got fairly started on the journey again.

No attempt was made to rob the passengers.

Among the passengers were Governor Stone and State Treasurer Len V. Stephens.

The governor was thoroughly aroused over the hold-up. He said to the passengers that the thing was robbery, and that he was sorry with impunity had gone far enough, and he proposed to have it stopped.

He said the robbers were fairly captured, and issued an official notice of a reward for the capture of the robbers, placing the amount at $500 for each robber.

After the robbers were taken to their work they escorted the engineer and fireman back to the engine and ordered them to pull out "quick."

The order was obeyed, but the train was stopped at Washington.

There Detective Pat Lally, who chanced to be on the train, got off and organized a posse and took to the road.

THE HILLMAN CASE.

NEW YORK, May 25.—There was printed in the Times of yesterday a story from Topeka, Kan., telling of the wanderings and the present location of John W. Hillman, the notorious Kansas insurance swindler, upon whose life a claim for $25,000 against the Mutual Life Insurance company of this city has been in the courts for years.

William G. Davis, solicitor general for the company, was seen yesterday by a Times reporter, and said:

"Hillman's hiding place in the Sierra Madre mountains in Mexico is his prison, and will be until the case is settled, or the Kansas authorities act. We have known of this for some time. Through our attorneys in Kansas all the facts which fasten upon Hillman the crime of murder have been gathered and given to the Kansas authorities."

"Do you intend to cause Hillman's arrest?" asked the reporter.

"That I cannot say," replied Mr. Davis.

"If Hillman's widow attempts to push the trial again, I shall certainly cause his arrest, and by my array of facts settle the matter forever. If the case is not tried again it will be the duty of the authorities of Kansas to cause Hillman's arrest and trial for the murder of Walter, the evidence concerning which came out at the trial of the insurance case."

A GRUDGE SETTLED.

ANN ARBOR, I. T., May 24.—[Special.]—News has just reached here of the killing of Bill Luttrell, by Hiram Eastwood, near Oakland, twenty-seven miles east of here, today.

The murdered man is a brother of Charles Luttrell, who was executed at Sherman a few weeks ago for the Sherman murder.

The killing of today is the result of a difficulty of several months standing between Luttrell and Eastwood. It dates back to about the time of the Sherman murder at Denison. At this time Eastwood was employed as deputy United States marshal for the Paris court.

Detective Lewis came to the territory to give evidence in the Sherman murder case. Bill Luttrell was arrested at the instigation of Detective Lewis by Marshal Eastwood for being connected with the case.

Luttrell protested against arrest, and swore vengeance against Eastwood for causing his arrest. He has since on several occasions threatened his life.

Today Luttrell opened the encounter by shooting at Eastwood. His aim was poor, he missing his man. Eastwood returned the fire, killing his antagonist almost instantly.

A BUCKEYE WIZARD.

SALEM, O., May 25.—He of the edge of the Western Reserve, among the people whose progenitors from New England made this part of Ohio a bit of transplanted Yankee-land, the days of Cotton Mather are recalled by the trial of an alleged wizard, now in progress here.

Ignored at first as a matter of no more than local interest, the case has dragged in the most powerful church denomination in eastern Ohio, and involves the appearance of some of the church's ablest ministers as counsel.

Jacob Culp, a wealthy farmer living a few miles east of this city, who, after a blameless life of more than half a century, is the man with an alleged evil eye, and breaths to blast whatever it is blown upon.

Culp claims the trouble lies in Howard Hughes, Norman Bleam and the Loop family, all relations of his wife, who, as told him by Rev. J. C. Cope, of the Hart's church, accuse him of being a wizard and the cause of the death of his first wife, the death of Mrs. Loop, the sickness of Mrs. Norman Bleam and Mrs. George Pile, the death of two horses belonging each to Hughes and Bleam and the cause of Bleam's cow giving bad milk.

He says a man named Hoff, of Alliance, a sort of doctor, made the persons named believe that unless he was put out of the way inside of six months he would be the source of more deaths and unhappiness in their families.

Culp was finally subjected to such intolerable annoyance and perhaps fearing some overt act to dispose of him within the six months' limit, that he sought the shelter of the law.

This was denied him, as in Ohio there are no provisions to protect accused witches. Culp then preferred charges in the church against his accusers.

Rev. J. A. Simons, of the church, and the ablest men in the pulpit in eastern Ohio, and Rev. J. R. Grimer, of Mount Union, were selected as counsel for the defendants.

Trial of the case began last night, with Culp having his inuring as accuser. Miss Sadie Loop was first tried.

Testimony was given showing she had accused Culp of evil magic, and a verdict of guilty was speedily returned. An appeal to the quarterly conference was taken.

Don't become constipated. Take BEECHAM'S PILLS.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—At the morning session of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, the committee on overtures relating to the Briggs case lay on the table. The report was adopted, with no dissent.

A resolution was adopted providing for a committee to visit the proper officials to ascertain whether the world's fair is to be kept open on Sundays.

The assembly was then resolved into a judicial court, and the Briggs resumed his argument in defense of the action of the New York presbytery in the case of the prosecution against him, and in opposition to the action of the synod in the judgment of the presbytery thereon.

At 12:25 o'clock Dr. Briggs yielded for a motion to adjourn, and a recess was taken until the afternoon session.

At the afternoon session of the assembly Dr. Briggs began his argument, where he left off in the morning. He wished to make an explicit statement, he said, of the charge that he had preached against the fundamental doctrines of the church.

"I believe that I believe in the doctrine of the Holy Scriptures to be the work of God," he closed with an appeal that the case might go to the synod.

If that were done, he would aid in the full solution of the case, and then if it were sent back to the next general assembly he would abide by its decision, whatever it might be.

As Dr. Briggs took his seat a wave of applause ran over the audience in the rear of the church, and an indignant rebuke from the moderator.

Then Colonel McCook began the closing argument for the prosecution.

A recess was taken until the evening, when Colonel McCook concluded his argument.
